The grouse of the Nigerian public with the judgement was based on the nature of the trial and the type of the punishment imposed. The Upper Sharia Court, Gwadabawa based his judgement on Islamic jurisprudence and imposed a punishment of death by stoning. It should be emphasized that death sentence by stoning is novel or unknown to Nigerian Criminal System. For instance, death sentence may be by hanging or firing squad. Also, its unjust to convict a woman for adultery while the man involved was set free for want of evidence.

Revisiting the Clash of Civilization Theory

- Huntington's theory on the 'clash of civilizations' states that culture would be the new source of conflict in the post-Cold War era, signaling the end of ideology or economy as the fundamental source of conflict in the new emerging world political order.
- These cultures would be represented by major conflicting civilizations which he defines as Western, Confucian, Japanese, Islamic, Hindu, Slavic-Orthodox, Latin American and possibly African, all defined by their distinct history, language, culture, tradition and religion.
- Religion is considered to be the most important component of civilizations according to Huntington, as it results in great differences between the relationship of God and man, individual and group and citizen and state (Huntington, 1993)

A Ceaseless Contention

وَلَنْ تُرْضِنِي عَنِّكَ الْبَهْوَةُ وَلَا الْأَصْنَافُ حَتَّىٰ شَيْعَ مَلِئُوهُ^١ فَلَمَّا أَنْهَىٰ اللَّهُ هُوَ الْأَهْدِيُّ^٢ وَلَنْ أَبْغِثَ
أَهْوَاءَهُمْ بَعْدَ الَّذِي جَاءُوكَ مِنَ الْعِلْمِ^٣ مَا لَكَ مِنَ اللَّهِ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا نَصِيرٍ^٤ ٢٠

- Never will the Jews or Christians be pleased with you, until you follow their faith. Say, "Allah's guidance is the only 'true' guidance." And if you were to follow their desires after 'all' the knowledge that has come to you, there would be none to protect or help you against Allah.

وَلَا يُرِيدُ الْأُولُونَ بِقُبْلَتِنَّكُمْ حَتَّىٰ يُرِيدُوكُمْ عَنِّ دِينِهِ^٥ فَمَنْتَ وَهُوَ
كَافِرٌ فَأَوْلَئِكَ حِيطَنُوكُمْ أَعْلَمُهُمْ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ^٦ وَأَوْلَئِكَ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ^٧ مُمْهُومُونَ^٨ ٢١٧

- And they will not stop fighting you until they turn you away from your faith—if they can. And whoever among you renounces their own faith and dies a disbeliever, their deeds will become void in this life and in the Hereafter. It is they who will be the residents of the Fire. They will be there forever.”⁴ (Q2:217)

Gender Politics

- Orientalism and gender/sexual politics in a typical orientalist dichotomous lens, the 'clash' discourses deem Muslim identities, values and culture as essentially and irredeemably patriarchal and anti-modern.
- “Western” culture, values and identities are considered as intrinsically progressive, modern and democratic, serving once more as “evidence” of western cultural, political and moral superiority.

Contentious Point

- As Modood and Ahmad (2007) show, sexual diversity has become a key area of conflict in the debate of multiculturalism:

The issue of sexuality, then, is in fact one of the pivotal points of contention between secular liberals and 'mainstream', practising Muslims within Western multicultural societies, and among Muslims themselves. It, together with the wider theme of sexual freedom, is central to the political hostility against Muslims in, for example, the Netherlands, where gay sociology professor Pim Fortuyn led a popular movement to restrict Muslim immigration because the attitudes of Muslims were alleged to be threatening traditional Dutch sexual liberalism. (Modood & Ahmad, 2007: 199)

What does LGBTQIA+ Stand for?

- What does LGBTQIA+ Stand for?
- LGBTQIA+: Abbreviation for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex, and Asexual.
- The additional "+" stands for all of the other identities not encompassed by the short acronym.

Why Rainbow flag

- June has long been recognized as LGBTQ Pride Month, in honor of the Stonewall riots, which took place in New York City in June 1969. During Pride Month, it is not uncommon to see the rainbow flag being proudly displayed as a symbol for the LGBTQ rights movement.
- In 1978, artist Gilbert Baker, an openly gay man and a drag queen, designed the first rainbow flag.
- Baker later revealed that he was urged by Harvey Milk, one of the first openly gay elected officials in the U.S., to create a symbol of pride for the gay community.

Religious Scholars Views

- Archbishop of Krakow, Marek Jedraszewski, who in the 75th anniversary of the Warsaw uprising by Polish resistance fighters against Nazi occupation in 2019 claimed that Poland is under a siege from gay rights activist campaigners, comparing them to Poland's former Communist occupiers:
- "Our land is no longer affected by the red plague, which does not mean that there is no new one that wants to control our souls, hearts and minds (...) not Marxist, Bolshevik, but born of the same spirit, neo-Marxist. Not red, but rainbow" (Reuters, 2019).
- Similarly condemning, Jerusalem's chief rabbi Shlomo Amar declared that homosexuals cannot be religious and that homosexuality is uncontrollable lust that can be overcome with simple fear of God, calling homosexuality an "abomination", a "sin against the Jewish people" and advocating for conversion therapy for homosexual people (Winer, 2019).
- Dr. Yusuf Al- Qardawi "... a perverted act... a reversal of the natural order, a corruption of man's sexuality, and a crime against the right of females".

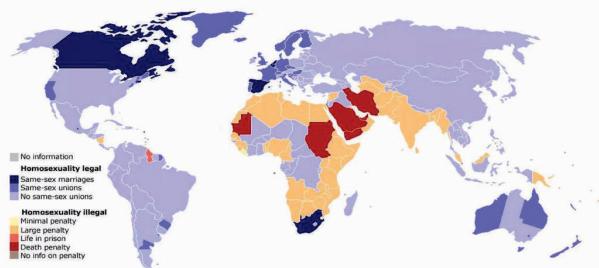

Religious Scholars Views

"Many mainstream and most conservative religious leaders, scholars and practitioners of these religions agree that homosexuality (as an identity or as a sexual/romantic act or preference) is either a sin that must be condemned and/or reversed or a crime that must be punished" (Hildebrandt, 2015).

Homosexuality Laws in the World

Cairo Declaration on Human Rights in Islam (1990)

"All the rights and freedoms stipulated in this Declaration are subject to the Islamic shari'ah"

The Islamic View

- Homosexuality is against nature
- It is condemned as sinful in Islam
- The Sunnah/Hadith prescribed punishment for the act
- It is considered as a crime under Shari'ah law

Islamic and point of notes on LGBTQIA+?

1. Islam as a religion of nature, comprehensive and has not left anything unsaid
2. Centrality of Marriage, Children and family
3. The qualities of candidates of Paradise (shun immorality)
4. Understanding of Anti-Islamic forces
5. The imperative of analyzing things critically and Islamically
6. The end of the time and the need to stick to the Islamic principles
7. The need to shun worldly temptations
8. Avoidance of bandwagon approach

Surah Al-A'raf Ayat 80

Conclusion

Homosexuality is a

"a perverted act... a reversal of the natural order, a corruption of man's sexuality, and a crime against the right of females".

On Women in Governance

Dr. Abdullahi Muhammad Ahmad 'Yankaba

Opening: In the name of Allah, the Ever Gracious the Ever Merciful. The blessings and peace of the Almighty are ever on the Prophet Muhammad, his pious Household, his indefatigable Companions and all those who maintain his trodden path in goodness till the end of time. Going further: It is pertinently compulsory to represent the actual stand of Islam on everything no matter how widely spread is an existing divergence of opinions. The actual and core truth remains as it should. It is relevant here to say that my submission here comes as a result of a fatwa circulating on the above-named topic. The said fatwa is titled: "WOMEN IN GOVERNANCE" dated August 30, 2020. My response as can be seen vividly mentioned above is: "ON WOMEN IN GOVERNANCE" Here we go asking guidance from Allah the Almighty. This discourse is enveloped in the following:

1. How Islam honored/honors Woman more than any other religion/system.
2. Consensual reality on Woman leadership in the classical period (time of the Companions RA)
3. Textual references on the issue and allied understandings.
4. Effects of the contemporary order on woman leadership.
5. Drawing the curtain down.
6. Alkhaatimah (Conclusion)

How Islam honored Woman is unparalleled/unequalled: This is so owing to so many factors. A few examples suffice. There is a whole chapter in the Glorious Qur'aan named after women. It is called Suurtun Nisaa'i i.e. chapter number 4. On the other side of the coin, no such honor is bestowed on Men. Impliedly, there is no Suurah or chapter named after men like say: Suuratur rijaal or 'chapter of men'. No any revealed scripture having divine origin- that accords women such an honor. All I am saying in this connection is that, the mere naming of a whole chapter after Women analyzing issues and matters having direct bearing on their lives is arguably an honor that a truly believing sister should be proud of. In this context, one can read verses 49-60 of chapter 42 where Allah (SWT) first mentions female babe before the male counterpart as one of HIS bounteous bestowals. Read it carefully: "... He gives females to whom He wills and males to whom He wills...." Here the female is "strengthened" (jabrul kasr) by being first mentioned before the male counterpart. This is in order to counter the empty claims trending in some places to the effect that women are downgraded in the house of Islam. Similarly, Woman is well taken care of and honored in Islam at least via three stages: as a baby, as a wife and as a mother. As a baby, our Prophet (SAW) says: مَنْ كَانَ لَهُ ثَلَاثٌ بَنَاتٍ فَصَبَرَ "عليهنَّ، وَأطْعَمَهُنَّ، وَسَقَاهُنَّ، وَكَسَاهُنَّ: منْ جَدَّتِهِ كَنَّ لَهُ حِجَابًا مِنَ النَّارِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ" Ibnu Majah Hadiith 3669 and it is Sahiih on the authority of 'Uqbatu Bin 'Aamir (RA) as well as in Musnad of Ahmad 17403 Meaning: "Whoever that has three female children so, he perseveres on training them, feeding and clothing them out of his effort, they shall be a shield for him from the hellfire on the day of resurrection" This is one of the highest honors ever to be conferred on a female child. This is because training THREE FEMALE KIDS becomes a causative agent for the father in getting admission into the Paradise!! It is to be found ONLY in the house of Islam. One can prove me to the contrary. As a wife, Islam says she should not suffer for her upkeep. The man closest to her a. k. a. the husband, shall bear all the brunt: her health, shelter, education, feeding and clothing and the like, of course within the reality of legitimate affordability. Here again a concrete case is made regarding honoring the woman and it is arguably unparalleled. As a mother, three rights are earmarked for her as against the father that has to contend with only one right. Read this Hadiith:

 جاء رجُلٌ إلى رسول الله صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ، فَقَالَ: مَنْ أَحَقُّ النَّاسِ بِحُسْنِ صَاحَابَتِي؟ قَالَ: أَمْكَنْ قَالَ: ثُمَّ مَنْ؟ قَالَ: ثُمَّ أَمْكَنْ قَالَ: ثُمَّ مَنْ؟ قَالَ: ثُمَّ أَبُوكَ وَفِي حَدِيثٍ قُتْنَيَةَ: مَنْ أَحَقُّ بِحُسْنِ صَاحَابَتِي وَلَمْ يَذْكُرِ النَّاسُ
Albukhary Hadiith 5971 and Muslim Hadiith 2548 on the authority of Abuu Hurairah (RA) Meaning: A man came to the Messenger of Allah sallal Laahu 'alayhi wa salaama saying: "Who deserves my good companionship? The Prophet (SAW) says: "Your mother" he said "then who"? He said "then your mother" the man again says: "then who" he said: "then your mother". He said "then who"? He said "then your father". Clearly, such a pre-eminence position of 'three to one' with the mother having the bigger share is a testimony on how honored she is in Islam. Does it mean that unless the woman occupies the office of the President, Governor, chairperson of a local government and the like before she is considered honored? My sister, will you be deceived by the agents of satanic modernization into being ungrateful to your Creator?

Consensual reality on Woman leadership in the classical period (time of the Companions RA): Contrary to a view expressed in that fatwa that I came across, comes my humble intervention. At the beginning of the fatwa referred to, comes this statement: "We can safely say that this dispute started since the days of the first Caliph, Sayyidina Abubakar (RLA)." My response here: There was no such dispute that can be said to have started since the days of Sayyidina Abubakr (RA). If at all there was such, the fatwa should have given where? when? and how? with evidential proofs. On the contrary, the classical period of the Companions especially, starting with Sayyidina Abubakr (RA) understood the Hadiith of Abubakr (RA) clearly which is Hadiith number 4425 in the Sahih of Al-Bukhaary. Ibnu Kathir in his compendium of Tafsiir quoted the same Hadiith in translating Ayah 34 of Suurah an-Nisaa'i. So that fatwa didn't get it right by the said assertion of an alleged dispute during the classical period on this issue. Additionally, here is the fatwa of the Permanent committee of the Saudi eminent Scholars on the issue: "اللجنة الدائمة" The Permanent Council was asked on the issue of Women in governance. This is their answer:

دللت السنة ومقاصد الشريعة والإجماع الواقع على أن المرأة لا تتولى منصب الإمارة ولا منصب القضاء ؛ لعموم حديث أبي بكرة أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم لما بلغه أن فارساً ولوا أمرهم امرأة قال : (لن يفلح قوم ولوا أمرهم امرأة) فإن كلا من كلمة (قوم) وكلمة (امرأة) نكرة وقعت في سياق النفي فَتَعُم ، والعبرة بعموم اللفظ لا بخصوص السبب كما هو معروف في الأصول . وذلك أن الشأن في النساء نقص عقولهن ، وضعف فكرهن ، وقوه عاطفتهن ، فتنطги على تفكيرهن ؛ ولأن الشأن في الإمارة أن يتفقد متوليها أحوال الرعية ، ويتولى شؤونها العامة الازمة لإصلاحها ، فيضطر إلى الأسفار في الولايات ، والاختلاط بأفراد الأمة وجماعاتها ، وإلى قيادة الجيش أحياناً في الجهاد ، وإلى مواجهة الأعداء في إبرام عقود ومعاهدات ، وإلى عقد بيعات مع أفراد الأمة وجماعاتها رجالاً ونساءً ، في السلم والحرب ، ونحو ذلك مما لا يتناسب مع أحوال المرأة ، وما يتعلق بها من أحكام شرعت لحماية عرضها ، والحفظ عليها من التبذل الممقوت . ويشهد لذلك أيضاً إجماع الأمة في عصر الخلفاء الراشدين وأئمة القرون الثلاثة المشهود لها بالخير إجماعاً عملياً على عدم إسناد الإمارة والقضاء إلى امرأة ، وقد كان منهن المتفقات في علوم الدين اللائي يرجع إليهن في علوم القرآن والحديث والأحكام ، بل لم تطلع النساء في تلك القرون إلى (17/13-17) "أتولى الإمارة وما يتصل بها من المناصب والزعامات العامة" . "افتلوا اللجنة الدائمة"

Meaning: "The Sunnah, aims and objectives of Shari'ah (maqaasidush Shari'ah) and consensual agreement of 'Ulama (Ijmaa') have it that woman cannot assume the position of leadership nor that of being a judge in the light of the generalizing meaning embedded in the Hadiith of Abubakr. Additionally, the two words امرأة and قوم occur in indefinite forms in a sequential context of negating statement thereby making it inclusive. A golden principle is hereby amplified. It says: "النكرة في سياق النفي تفيد العموم Which gives credence to the CONSENSUS OF THE UMMAH THROUGHOUT THE EPOCH OF THE RIGHTLY GUIDED CALIPHS AND GUIDES OF THE THREE CENTURIES ASCERTAINED TO BE CENTURIES OF RECTITUDE. They all opined consensually based on knowledge that women cannot assume positions of leadership and or being a judge and there were bright and intelligent women then, there were erudite scholars of Qur'aan and Hadiith as well as other jurisprudential matters consulted from time to time. None of these women ever showed any interest in acts of governance or general leaderships" So, it is incorrect to say that the issue of woman leadership and or participation in governance has been an issue of dispute even from the time of Sayyidina Abubakr (RA) in the light of the foregoing. Yes, the dispute could be traced to the Khalaf NOT the Salafus Saalih

Textual references on the issue and allied understanding: Aayah 34 of Chapter 4 of the Glorious Qur'aan says: "Men are in charge of women by [right of] what Allah has given one over the other and what they spend [for maintenance] from their wealth..." from Sahih International. Like I mentioned previously, Ibnu Kathiir (RL) while translating this aayah, of Suurah an-Nisaa i.e. aayah 34, employs this Hadiith of Abubakr (RA) in Al-Bukhary, thereby debunking the claim that came in the fatwa that says the aayah refers only to the domestic issues bordering on internal matrimonial life!! That is incorrect. That fatwa has to be revisited and put on the right track. Now coming to the said Hadiith, that is the Hadiith of Abuubakrata Some say the Hadiith is not Sahih that is authentic because it is shaadh!! or irregular quite contrary to the view of reliable scholars that destroys such a claim which says it is irregular. The Hadiith is in Sahih of Al-Bukhary, how can it Shaadh? Abubakrata(RA) is a Sahaaby that is a Companion of the Prophet(SAW) And all of the companions are just that's. الصحابة عدول. The definition of being shaadh does not apply here completely.

Now the text of the Hadiith:

عن أبي بكرة رضي الله عنه قَالَ: لَقَدْ نَفَعَنِي اللَّهُ بِكَلْمَةٍ سَمِعْتُهَا مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَيَّامَ الْجَمْلِ، بَعْدَ مَا كِدْنَا
أَنَّ الْحَقَّ بِأَصْنَابِ الْجَمْلِ فَقَاتَلَ مَعَهُمْ، قَالَ: لَمَّا بَلَغَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّ أَهْلَ قَارَسَ، فَدَمَكُوا عَلَيْهِمْ بِنْتَ كِسْرَى،
قَالَ (لَنْ يُفْلِحَ قَوْمٌ وَلَوْا أَمْرًا هُمْ امْرَأَةً)

Meaning: "No people shall prosper if they make a woman on top of their affairs" Sahihul Bukhary H4425&7099. Similarly in Sunan of Tirmidhy H2262, also in Sunan of Nasaa'iy H5388 as well as in Musnad of Ahmad H20402, 20438,20474,20477,20478, 20508 and 20517. All of these narratives have been declared Sihah I.e. authentic having slight variations of wordings. All of them talking about one issue, namely: illegality of a woman assuming mantle of overall leadership. In a commentary on this Hadiith, comes this (from Islamqa.info/Shaykh al-Munajjid): "That's the consensus of the generality of Muslim scholars that being a man is a condition for an overall leadership, that it is unlawful for a woman to assume an overall leadership." Let me quickly say here that overall leadership in the Nigerian context and elsewhere is being the President or the Governor of a state as well as chairperson of a Local Government. In the light of the foregoing, here are what scholars have said based on the Hadiith:

1. In the book Sharhus Sunnah 77/10 al-Baghawy says: They('Ulamaa) consensually have it that it is not valid for a woman to be an Imam-(here Caliph with an overall power-,) or a judge. This is because the Imam needs to go out to mobilize and strengthen determination for Jihad and she needs- as a judge- to be physically present to intervene in a conflict resolution.... and she is an 'awrah or reflection of privacy ..."

2. Alqaady Abubakr ibnul 'Araby in his أحكام القرآن that is 3/482 has this to say: "This(Hadiith of Abubakrata) is a clear text that a woman cannot be a Caliph(President or king and the like) On this, there's no any disagreement or bone of contention "

3. Ash-Shawkany in نيل الاوطار that is 8/304 also says in this connection: \ "... قَوْلُهُ: (أَنْ يُفْلِحَ قَوْمٌ . إِلَّا حِلْمٌ)" "In it there is a proof that woman is not eligible to assume leaderships and it is unlawful for people to make her their leader for, keeping away from what causes lack of success is obligatory"

4. Ibnu Hajar (RL) in Fathul Baary says: "Giving impetus to the view of the Majority is decisive ruling that masculinity is a precondition for the office of a judge..." These are some of scholarly views of the scholars unlike this 'Fatwa' that contains inaccuracies and contradictory inconsistencies. Just look at what the 'Fatwa' says somewhere: "Based on all the salient issues and reasons adduced in this Fatwa, it is abundantly clear that women have the Islamic legal rights to hold any office in the land except that of the great Imama. Therefore, women can contest in an election and if they win, can become Local Government Chairpersons, Members of the Legislature, Senators, Governors or even the President!" Critically look at the two underlined areas from the quotation taken from the "Fatwa" a clear case of contradiction! You would say. The contradiction here is: You say: " "...it is abundantly clear that women have the Islamic legal right to hold any office in the land except that of the great Imaam. Here the fatwa says she can hold ANY office except that of great Imama and later the same fatwa says: ".....they can become senators, governors or even the president"! The question here is where is the exception".... except the great Imam? One is constrained to ask the following questions:

1. What is the meaning of great imama as it occurs in this fatwa?
2. Is it the imama here in the classical version or its meaning has to be looked for in the light of the contemporaneous realities?
3. Is being a president, governor or even a chairman of a local government excluded from the meaning of imama here? Lots more can ask in this connection owing to the contradictory tone of the part as contained in the fatwa.

Effects of the contemporary order on woman's leadership: Coming to this point, one quickly reflects on the so-called modernity of today. Things like the so-called gender equality, feminist mentality etc have been shaping and characterizing the world view of "the woman of today" that fanatically relishes and savors the ideas of misguided radical women of the West. One of the cancerous documents in this regard is the treaty titled CEDAW as an abbreviation. That's: CONVENTION ON THE ELIMINATION OF ALL FORMS OF DISCRIMINATION AGAINST WOMEN This misguided treaty was signed on 18-12-79 in New York effective from 3/9/81 with 99 signatories. The United Nations hurriedly adopted it as an international treaty!! Some men and women though 'Muslims' accept this treaty hook line and sinker. So, in the light of this, some people in the name of scholarship give fatwa on this issue so as to be in tune with modern realities or so it looks. Let me throw this question: what is the meaning of "ALL FORMS OF DISCRIMINATION AGAINST WOMEN" as it comes in the treaty? Allah says in the HQ 4:11, male child should have twice the share of the female child in inheritance. That's the judgment of the Almighty. Is that a discrimination against the female child to you as a Muslim? Man can marry up to four women HQ 4:3. Another discrimination?? One can go on citing instances. Are you with the teachings of your Creator and HIS Prophet (SAW) or with the mortals driven by whimsical delusions??!

Drawing curtain down: Before 'resting my case' the said 'fatwa' listed many conditions for a woman to fulfill before ascending the power. They know pretty well that it is an impossibly for woman to maintain these conditions while simultaneously being President, governor, chairman of a local government and that which comes under this categorization. Look at the following. Can she-as a President, governor, chairperson, MD etc:

1. Maintain her hijaab as Allah wants it?

2. Avoid shaking hands with other men?
3. Avoid gorgeously dressing in glamorous style just to satisfy the taste of the moment?
4. Avoid seclusion with her oga, vice or deputy or any subordinate for discussing 'top' issues governmentally?
5. Avoid group pictures with strangers' shoulder to shoulder in a given occasion? And on and on.

Yes, a woman can occupy a position of high importance in the society to tap from her Allah given potentialities but it has to be within the confines of the Sharii'ah. Superiority is not located in being a man, woman, black or white. "The best of you in sight of Allah is the best in being conscious of Allah." HQ49:13 Don't forget; there is this confused American feminist who embraced Islam from a Methodist church background at the age of 20. Her name is Amina Wadud. Out of a hallucinating influence of feminism, she led men and women in a Friday congregational prayers in New York on 18 of March 2005! Just to prove what? Gender equality even in prayer! Look at this abracadabra!! They say charity begins at home. This wise saying is yet to have its practical realization with the flag bearers of the so-called gender equality campaign. For example, America is today 246 years old as an independent nation from England having attained its freedom on the 4th of July 1776. Yet America didn't find it fit to give a woman a chance to occupy White House as a President even once. Did the Qur'aan forbid them? After many years of British political history, then came the first female prime minister in the person of Margaret Thatcher from 1979-1990. Why the delay? A discrimination against women? The second female prime minister in the whole of the lengthy history of British political history is Theresa May from the Conservative party. She reigned for only three years 2016-2019. Were there no competent British female political gurus? Why then the male domination?? Did Islam stop them? From the first male German chancellor Otto Von Bismarck whose reign started in 1867 to the first female German chancellor in modern time i.e. Angela Merkel who ruled for sixteen (16) years, 2005-2021, there were 138 solid years! All these "donkey" years where were the intelligent German women.? They were denied the chances of chancellorship until after 138 years!! A case for gender-based discrimination? Did Islam forbid them? Similarly, the first female Prime minister of France is Edith Cresson. She served from 1991-1992. She was the only woman to be prime minister until 2022, when Élisabeth Borne was appointed. To cite but a few of many instances. They are the vociferous protagonists of eliminating discrimination against women. Islam does not make any pretentious statement. Its teachings are clear. So, they are implementing the teachings of Islam on the issue indirectly. But because "prejudice dies hard", they keep on being intransigent against the plain truth. A doubting Thomas can be heard saying but the Holy Qur'aan talks about Bilqis the Queen of Sheba as a monarch! We say: and does that mean a reason to justify woman leadership? The pharaoh (fir'aun) too is talked about severally in the HQ confirming his hegemonic power. Does that make pharaoh a model for the true believers? Of course, no! Similarly, the success that the Hadiith of Abubakrata(RA) removes from any people placing a woman on top of their affairs does not mean necessarily worldly success, it means also the actual success al-Falaah in the hereafter. The Hadiith says:لن يفلح قوم ...
